Board News:

- Remember the Education Committee as they begin their interviews for open positions.
- Be in prayer for teachers as they receive their contracts for next school year.

Sub Sandwich Report: Mission accomplished! God is so faithful and has truly blessed us again. What an awesome experience to work together with 100+ adult and student volunteers to make 8790 sub sandwiches in 4 ½ hours! A big heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone who bought, sold, helped set up, worked on Saturday at the assembly, and delivered the subs.

Fun facts:

- 562 lbs. of turkey, 552 lbs. of ham, 414 lbs. of cheddar, 414 lbs. of swiss, and 220 lbs. of butter were used!
- 100+ hardworking students, parents, grandparents, and friends
[including (23) 7th & 8th graders and (11) high school alumni]
- 3 assembly lines
- This fundraiser was started in the 1990's by the Granny's Club in Jean Kortus' basement! It was handed over to the Eagle Boosters in 2004 and has steadily increased from about 2000 subs since then!

With all of your support, an incredible $17,010 profit was raised for our school! We hope you were blessed through your service.

Archery: Keep our archery team in mind this week as they will be competing in the state tournament, the Wolf Cup, held on Saturday, March 9. Our school, along with the Whatcom Homeschool Archery Team, will be hosting the local satellite competition (along with four other satellite locations) that day. Team scores will be tabulated along with almost 1000 other archers across the state. Interested in helping? Talk with Mr. Buss. One thing we are in need of: cardboard sheets appx. 30" square to place on the target faces. If you come across large sheets of cardboard, please bring them to school. Another way you can help for the tournament is to be a line judge for a couple hours the day of the tournament. Talk to Mr. Buss for details. Thank you!

K-4 Spring Musical: Next Friday, March 15, 7:00pm. is our performance at Lynden Christian School's Worship and Fine Arts Center. We are grateful to LC for allowing us to use their facilities again!

K-4 parents: Performance dress: We are asking all the K-4 students to come with dark pants (no holes!) and a black shirt (no writing). Parents have discretion on providing this for their kids, but if you have questions, talk with your student's teacher.

We look forward to performing this original musical, "Tony", written for us by Mr. McLendon! Admission is by donation. Invite your friends and family!
